Invitation to BdP's Lower Saxony Withsun Camp 2024

28. Jun. 2023

Dear Scouts and Guides,

Do you love meeting scouts from different countries? You would like to get to know German Scouting culture? In this case, you are warmly invited to be part of a German scout camp and to join our next Withsun camp from 17.05.2024 to 21.05.2024! We are the Lower Saxony regional association of the Bund der Pfadfinderinnen und Pfadfinder (BdP), which is a German scouting association. With the camp motto "Drunter und drüber" (which is a German way to say "chaotic", but in a very cute way) we will gather for four days to play, sing, be creative, and have a good time together.

As international guests, you will have a German host group to spend the camp with. After the camp, there will be one extra day to organize a fun activity with your German partner group in their home town, like for instance a homestay for one night. The main languages during the camp are going to be German and English so please make sure that at least some of your leaders can communicate in one of these languages. The costs for the camp, as well as the food, will probably be covered by a sponsorship program, which your German partner group will take care of.

The most important facts at a glance:

When? 17.05.2024 - 21.05.2024

Where? Almke Jugendzeltplatz, Volkmarsdorfer Straße 100 in 38446 Wolfsburg in Lower Saxony, Germany

Who? Groups from the age of approx. 10 years and upwards with their group leaders

Costs? Depending on your country of origin and your time of registration, there is a very good chance that your entire stay at the camp can be covered by public grants. In this case, you would only have to cover your travel costs. Please get in touch and we will figure it out together!
