Invitation to BdP's Lower Saxony Regional Jamboree 2024

19. Nov. 2023

Dear Scouts and Guides,

Do you love meeting scouts from different countries? You would like to get to know German Scouting culture? In this case, you are warmly invited to be part of a German scout camp and to join our next Withsun camp from 17.05.2024 to 21.05.2024! We are the Lower Saxony regional association of the Bund der Pfadfinderinnen und Pfadfinder (BdP). With the camp motto "Drunter und drüber" (which is a German way to say "chaotic", but in a very cute way) we will gather for four days to play, sing, be creative, and have a good time together.

As international guests, you will be paired with a German host group to spend the camp with. After the camp, there will be one extra day with your host group to explore their hometown and for example have a homestay for one night. There is also the possibility to extend the stay in Germany for a few more days. The languages during the camp will be mainly German and English. There is the possibility to receive government-funding which would cover the camp fee, food and any extra activities. You would only have to pay for the travel costs. To access funding, it is important to sign up for the camp until 15.01.2024 the latest. Get into contact with our international team to learn more about funding opportunities.

The most important facts at a glance:

Where? Almke Jugendzeltplatz, Volkmarsdorfer Straße 100 in 38446 Wolfsburg in Lower Saxony, Germany
